

CREDIT REPORT DIRECT DISPUTE DISCLOSURE

If you feel like there are inaccuracies in your consumer report regarding:

- Liabilities for a credit account or other debt with First County Bank;
- The terms of a credit account or other debt with First County Bank;
- Your performance or other conduct concerning an account or other relationship with First County Bank; or
- Any other information contained in a consumer report regarding an account or other relationship with First County Bank that bears on your creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living you have the right to file a direct dispute with First County Bank.

You may initiate a direct dispute of information involving a First County Bank credit account by completing the form below (in full) and mailing it to: 117 Prospect Street, Stamford, CT 06901, Attention: Loan Servicing. If you have additional information that you believe supports your dispute, please include it in the comments section. We also recommend that you write directly to a credit Bureau (Equifax, Trans Union, or Experian) detailing the error and the corrective actions you have taken.

---

Name

---

Telephone Number

---

Address

---

---

Account Number

Please describe the information you are disputing and why you believe the information contained on your report is inaccurate:

---

Signature:

Last Updated: 09-12-2013
NMLS#: 411487

